

Suisse Hotel

Ideally located right beside the historic and picturesque Kandy Lake, the 90 roomed well known colonial styled Hotel Suisse, stands on nearly four acres of landscaped garden – the only city hotel in Kandy to stand such a significantly massive acreage.

However, in 1818 this property was acquired by the British and occupied by an officer, who named it "Haramby House". Years later, "Haramby House" was sold to a Swiss lady, Madam Burdayron, who ran it as a guest house.

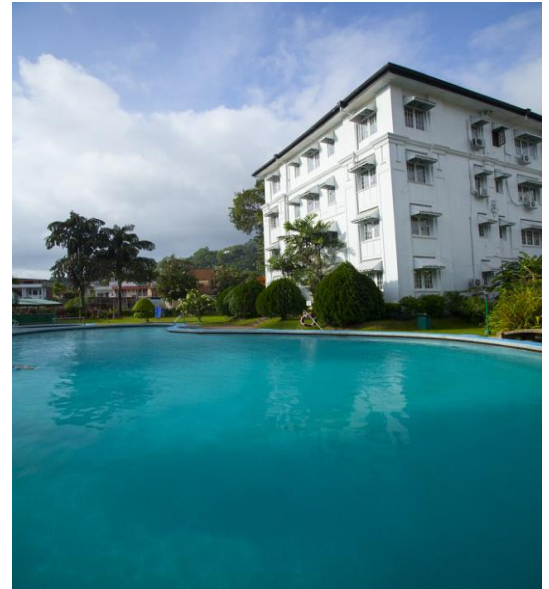

Now Hotel Suisse is a property of the Ceylon Hotels Corporation which is managed by the Galle Face Hotel Group.
